

Our application process for external sales

We care about credentials for positions in external sales, but it's your personality that really makes the difference. Which is why we want to get to know YOU and find out together if we're a good fit for each other.

1. Online application

Upload your application documents using the application button. A letter of motivation is not required.

2. Contact

Our Head of Sales will contact you, usually within 5 days.

3. Getting acquainted

You will be provided with detailed information about localsearch and the position of Digital Marketing Consultant in external sales. The Head of Sales will learn more about you and your goals and motivations.

4. Personality and motivation profile

Aided by an online questionnaire, we find out whether your everyday professional life with us will be fulfilling for you and bring both of us forward!

Your personality profile can also tell us if we are not a good fit for each other and that you would not be happy in a position in external sales. In such a case you will receive a written rejection letter and the journey together comes to an end.

5. Assessment

Fantastic – our position and your personality are a good fit! During a personal conversation at the regional office, we'll discuss your personality profile together with you and you can demonstrate your sales talents in two role plays. You will also get to know our team, accompany a digital marketing consultant in their work and get a feel for external sales in action.

6. Administrative matters & further steps

Keen to get started with us? We'll take care of the administrative side of things so that you can get an employment agreement in your hands and we can welcome you to the team without delay.
